The costs for toddler care depend on your personal situation and the subsidies, which vary from one municipality to another. Almost all municipalities distinguish between parents entitled to childcare allowance and parents not entitled to childcare allowance. The following page shows which situation applies to you.

Calculate your costs.

Are you entitled to childcare allowance?

It may be that you are eligible for childcare allowance; a government reimbursement of your costs. You can check whether you are entitled to any allowance on the Tax Office's website.

If you are entitled to childcare allowance, you will receive an income-dependent contribution from the Tax Office. Would you like to know exactly how much you will pay? Use our calculation tool for an easy personal calculation.

Are you not entitled to childcare allowance? Or do you have a 'Gelrepas'?

Are you not entitled to childcare allowance from the Tax Office? The municipality may contribute to the cost of toddler care. You will pay a parental contribution, where the amount depends on the joint gross income.
